Nunc Agenda: Answer the following questions using yesterday’s classwork and your own knowledge.

1. How did the organization of the Church change over time?

________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

2. Why did the Church become divided between East and West?

________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

Which group had the greatest influence on the development of Russia? (Circle One)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SLAVS</th>
<th>VIKINGS</th>
<th>BYZANTINES</th>
<th>MONGOLS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Explain why you made this choice using examples from the textbook (Chapter 9 Section 2):

THE THIRD ROME

Directions: In the late 1400s, the Byzantine Empire finally came to an end. Read the subsection titled, “Constantinople Falls to the Turks” on page 287 to find out how it happened. Now read “The Third Rome” at the top of page 289. Do you think Moscow, and Russia in general, should be considered the New Rome?

As a group, read “Moscow Takes the Lead” on pages 292-293 and as a group, decide whether you think Moscow deserves the title. Then, write a letter to Ivan the Great either to congratulate him on bringing forth the Third Rome (agree) or criticizing him for claiming a title he does not deserve (disagree).