

Columbus Comparative Analysis

Part One- The Voyages of Columbus:

Directions: Working in groups, read and annotate the sections of the textbook excerpt titled "Setting the Stage" and "The Voyages of Columbus" and record what you think are the four main ideas expressed in the section of text. Then, answer the two questions that follow.

Four Main Ideas

1. How does the text describe Columbus' relations with the natives? Give examples.

2. Is there any information you found unnecessary or not worth including?

Part Two- The Legacy of Columbus from Primary Sources:

Directions: After completing part two, read the second document, and record what you consider to be the four most important facts mentioned in these sources that were left out of the first text.

Four Important Facts (found in Part 2 but not in part 1)
