

INVESTIGATION NOTES

What were the symptoms of plague, and how did people try to treat it? How did a lack of understanding of the disease make this difficult?

How did people deal with the massive death they encountered? How did they react and respond?

What impact did the plague have on Europe, economically, politically, religiously, and socially?

Based on the evidence, "who" do you think should be charged for committing this crime? Explain.